Paula's Panui

I hope everyone was able to enjoy the long weekend with the extra day on Friday. We appreciate your support with the staff only day. Our staff spent the day in Wellington looking at different opportunities in Wellington to explore Aotearoa/New Zealand history. This included a visit to the National Library to view the Te Tiriti along with the Declaration of independence of the united tribes of NZ (signed in 1835) and the Women's Suffrage Petition (1893). We also visited the Wellington Museum and of course Te Papa. Staff have started making plans for branching out!

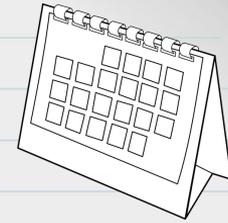

Another big piece of work that we are undertaking at the moment is mid year reports, which we are changing slightly. You will have noticed over these past couple of years we have tried to reduce our paper use and this will in part be moving in that direction also. We will be having an information session to support parents with this.

The key thing you need at the moment is an email address as you will need that to log in to view your child's report. To ensure we have the most up to date information, please fill out this form. Don't worry – there will be much more information coming!

Ngā Mihi,

Paula Weston Tumuaki/Principal
